

Name _____

Read each sentence.

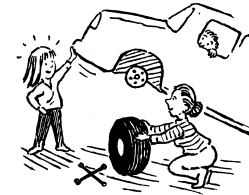

Write Y if it tells something that could really happen.

Write N if it tells something that could not really happen.

_____ 1. Janet lifted her bike.

_____ 2. Janet lifted the car.

_____ 3. Janet carried her books to school.

_____ 4. Janet and John ran a race.

Write a sentence about something that could not really happen.

5. _____

Home Activity Your child identified whether a story event could really happen. Ask your child to tell two stories about events at school—one realistic (something that really happened) and one that is a fantasy (something that couldn't happen).